DEVELOPMENT AND EXECUTION OF ACTION-ORIENTED PROGRAMS

The company applies the following guidelines in developing and executing action-oriented diversity programs:

1. Job Descriptions

- a. Conduct detailed analysis of job descriptions to ensure that they accurately reflect the essential functions of the job. The analyses are updated as the duties of a position change and are distributed to all appropriate individuals.
- b. Develop worker specifications using essential function criteria. Job requirements include education, experience, and skill requirements necessary to qualify for the job opening. Worker specifications are distributed to referral sources when job opportunities arise.

2. Hiring-Selection

- a. Evaluate selection process periodically to ensure freedom from bias. Select and train personnel involved with recruiting, screening, selection, promotion, discipline, and related processes. The recruiting, screening, referral, and selection process must demonstrate a good-faith effort to remove identified barriers, expand employment opportunities, and produce measurable results.
- b. Observe the requirements of the “EEO UNIFORM GUIDELINES” on Employee Selection Procedures by performing periodic audits of personnel activities and retaining records if material adverse impact on minorities or women seems likely.
- c. Monitor the manner applicants are referred to managers for hiring consideration to ensure the process is nondiscriminatory.

3. Compensation System(s)

- a. Review starting wages periodically to determine if there may be race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, national origin, ancestry, veteran status, non-job-related disability disparities. Where disparities cannot be explained in terms of performance, length of service, or other lawful factors, corrective action will be taken.

4. Recruitment Efforts

Establish recruitment efforts to maintain a flow of qualified minority and female applicants:

- a. Solicit minority, women’s and veteran’s organizations and organizations concerned with persons with disabilities for referral of applicants.

- b. Offer briefings both on and off premises with representatives from recruitment sources concerning current and future job openings.
  - c. Encourage minority, female, veteran, and employees with a disability to refer applicants for employment.
  - d. Participate in career day programs, using minority and female employees whenever possible.
  - e. Establish recruitment efforts at schools with special programs that reach minorities, women, and persons with a disability.
  - f. As opportunities arise, encourage community child care, housing, and transportation programs designed to improve the employment opportunities for minorities, women, and persons with a disability.
  - g. Ensure that job openings have been sent to community partners.
5. Promotions – Ensure that all employees are given equal opportunity for promotion:
- a. Communicate promotional opportunities. Although rare, the company reserves its discretionary right not to post a particular opportunity.
  - b. Initiate job training programs.
  - c. Provide clearly defined job descriptions.
6. Career Counseling – Monitor career counseling to ensure that all employees are given equal opportunity for career counseling:

DISSEMINATION OF DIVERSITY POLICY

Dissemination of Policy

Presque Isle Downs has established various channels of communication to ensure that employees and the community are aware of the company's positive posture toward Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) and Diversity.

Internal Dissemination

The Diversity Plan is stated as part of Presque Isle Downs' employee relations policy and is covered in our Employee Policies & Procedures.

Formal presentations are made to management, supervisors, and employees from time to time concerning affirmative action. The Diversity Plan is reviewed each year by the Director of Human Resources and updated accordingly. If hiring takes place, regular updates are given to local and corporate management on progress in addressing underutilized areas. In those units where employees are represented by a collective bargaining agent, the unions are formally made aware of this policy.

In management and supervisory training, the entire concept of diversity is covered.

New employees are formally made aware of our policy on diversity and anti-harassment, sex discrimination guidelines, and the Equal Pay Act. This policy is posted on a number of bulletin boards at this location.

Key local management and support personnel undergo EEO and diversity training from time to time. Supervisors and managers participate in the review of underutilized categories.

When we feature employees in our employee publications, minorities, women and individuals with disabilities are included.

As part of our policy of good communication, the company has notified appropriate recruiting sources and the headquarters offices of the unions with whom we deal on the company's policy concerning EEO and diversity. When hiring occurs, we request referral of qualified women, minorities, and individuals with disabilities for all positions.

Our customers, contractors, and various community groups have been notified of our policies. The company communicates its commitment to EEO by recruitment advertising through regular media and through minority and women's publications.

Minority and non-minority men and women are pictured in product and consumer advertising and in our annual report.

Written notification of EEO policy, as well as requests for certification regarding compliance with EEO laws, is sent to suppliers and subcontractors. We require that EEO clauses be incorporated as part of all purchase orders and contracts.

All “Help Wanted” advertisements carry the notice “Equal Opportunity Employer,” and this designation is included in recruiting brochures and literature.
